Liberton Kirk is an active congregation of the Church of Scotland situated in the South of Edinburgh. As well as the church building, we have a large suite of Halls which play a key role in our outreach to the local community. The café is situated in the foyer leading to the suite of halls and plays a large part in our connections with the community.

The successful applicant will be a part in Liberton Kirk's task of Christian Mission to the users of the church and Kirk Centre. They will assist the Café Manager in running the café and making sure it is welcoming.
