

Liberton Kirk

Churchyard Details

Compiled by John Rennie

This Edition November 2001

Copyright Liberton Kirk 2001

This guide has three sections: the first is a list of all surnames together with graveyard references. The second gives the layout of the graveyard with gravestone positions. The third is a list of all gravestones, with all the surnames from each stone.

To aid location, the churchyard is divided into seven areas, each with a prefix defining the specific area. All stones with the prefix CH are located within the church. Those with prefix CT are located in the church tower. The stone numbered CH1 is the stained glass window on the south wall of the church. CH4 is the church war memorial and CH5 is the Liberton Public School war memorial. The others are located in the elder's room.

About eight of the stones are either blank or too faint to be read, but have been given a number in the hope that some information may come to light which will enable them to be identified and catalogued without renumbering.

The system is simple to use: find a surname from the list, which will give you all the stones on which this name appears and then look up the graveyard layout for stone positions. Should there be a problem locating a particular stone then the list of stones with all associated surnames should ensure correct location.

Although great care was taken to ensure the accuracy of this information, we may still have errors or omissions. Should you find any, please contact John Rennie on 0131-258 0859 and give the stone number and the correction so that the data can be checked and updated.

LIBERTON KIRK CHURCHYARD LAYOUT

NOTES:

The Churchyard is divided into seven areas, labelled A-E around the Church from the main entrance, with two internal areas - CH for the Church itself, and CT for the Tower.

The stones are numbered sequentially, 1-190, and are referenced by Section and number (A17 and CT2 for example). Stones within the Church and Tower have separate numbers with 5 stones in the tower, and 10 in the Church.

CH1 is the stained glass window
CH4 is the Church War Memorial
CH5 is the Liberton School War Memorial

8 of the stones are either blank, or are too faint to be read.

Stone references correct as at 1/8/01.

- + 1 - vertical stone
- 43 - recumbent or table stone
