Letter from Jonny

As you read this, I'll have already had my last Sunday at Liberton Kirk, which means I can say more or less whatever I want, and get away with it. I sincerely hope, therefore, that you believe me when I say, I could not have wished for a better final placement in my training for the ministry. I have been richly blessed by my time here in so many ways.

It has been a great learning opportunity, John has been an excellent supervisor and I've been part of a wonderful staff team. But whenever people ask me about my probationary year, one phrase is never far from my mouth, "What makes Liberton so good is its people."

One of the nice things at evening worship is that we have started to have a regular time of thanksgiving. On one evening someone who was new to the church stood up and remarked on how friendly and welcoming the congregation was, only for someone else to stand up and say the same thing.

Only a few months later someone else stands up and says the same thing yet again.

Although pleasing to hear, its not something that any church can afford to be complacent

"I have called you friends"

about. Like all such things, it requires continued input and effort. If I can encourage you to take something you are good at, and make it even better, it would be this: knowing that each one of us individually can make a difference, and have a role to play towards the character of our Church family.

If I could leave you with a challenge, then my question would be, how do we future proof the church so that it continues to be a beacon of welcome and friendship that shares the light and the love of Christ for many generations to come?

M.L. and I wish you all the very best with all our love, and we thank you for your love and support shown to us over this last year.

"I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever."
(Ps 86:12)

With love, Jonny

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Judges 6:36 - 7:8, 16-22

God had told Gideon he would drive the Midianite invaders out of His country. 32000 men had come to fight with Gideon.

Gideon asked God for proof.

If You are really going to help me, tomorrow this wool will be wet but the ground be dry.

God did as Gideon had asked.

But Gideon was still worried.

Could you show me again, but with the wool dry and the ground wet?

And God did.

God said

The army is too big. They will think that they beat the Midianites, not Me.

So Gideon sent home all who were afraid - 22000 of them

There were still too many, so Gideon told them to drink from the spring.

300 scooped up water to drink, and the rest were sent home.

Each man was given a jar with a lit torch in it and a horn.

That night they surrounded the Midianite camp.

At the signal, they blew the trumpets, smashed the jars and shouted a war cry

The Midianites were so shocked they attacked each other, and then ran

The Israelites won without having to do any fighting.

Church Organ Music for November

'In moments of joy, we see all the beauty in the world, and they bring us closer to God. In moments of despair, all that was once beautiful crumbles around us. In these moments, does our faith remain firm? Christ tells us to endure through these troubles because, by our endurance, we will gain our souls.'

Annual Memorial Service

This is an advance notice that our annual memorial service will be held on Wednesday 11th December at 7pm.

This service is especially for people who find the thought of Christmas celebrations difficult without a loved one who has died, or for those whose memories of long-lost loved ones are particularly sharp at this time of year.

There will be flyers available from mid-November to give to anyone you know who might find this service comforting. Everyone is welcome.

There will be a cup of tea or coffee afterwards for anyone who wishes to stay.

trypraying stories of Faith from David Hill

It can be a little surprising, but when we pray, someone listens!

For me, it all started when I was a student studying maths at university. After nine months arguing with a Christian I began to see there was evidence for a reasonable faith. That came to a climax one night when I prayed and said, 'God if you are there, and I'm not sure you are, but if you are I want to get to know you.' Two weeks later, through an amazing experience, I knew there was a God and he was at work in my life. That was the start of a life-long adventure.

But here is a different story. A church in Dunfermline has a trypraying banner outside and a small Perspex box with trypraying booklets in it for people to help themselves. Mary, a woman from that church, regularly helps the homeless, drug addicts and alcoholics who hang out in a local park. She has been doing this for years.

One day, while there, she overheard a girl and a mother talking. The girl was saying that she wanted to spend the money she had saved on a birthday present. The mother, however, had to explain that the money was needed to pay bills and buy food. Mary joined their conversation and asked if she could help some way.

Thus began a process in which they were being helped in very practical ways: she took them to Tesco, paid the electricity bill, bought groceries, gave the girl some money for her birthday as well as an ice cream, and bought the mother a coffee. As they were sitting talking the woman asked Mary, 'Are you from that church?' She said, 'Yes I am.' Then, to her amazement, the woman said, 'Well two days ago I picked up a trypraying booklet from the Perspex box outside the church, and, for the first time in my life, prayed that God would send someone to help me. And here you are helping me!'

When we pray, someone listens and wants us to come to know him.

Guild News for November

ALL WELCOME!

Theme: Companions on the Road

(Monday) Evening Guild at 7.30pm

(Wednesday) Afternoon Guild at 2.15pm

On Monday 4th November, Frank Hay will be our speaker, his subject being "The Briggers" (the building of the Forth Rail Bridge). This promises to be a very interesting talk.

The Afternoon Guild meets on Wednesday 13th November when Katie Swann will enlighten us about the Eden Project. This is not the one in Cornwall; but is an organisation that focuses on loneliness.

Each session the Guild chooses to raise money to support two National Guild Projects.

The first one chosen this year by Liberton Kirk Guild is Crossreach – Join up the Dots: tackling the problems of loneliness. (Crossreach is the social arm of the Church of Scotland.) On Monday 18th November we are delighted that Christine Johnston will be with us to talk about this subject. There will also be a Bring and Buy stall that evening to raise money for the project.

A date for your Diary!

On Saturday 23rd November we will be holding our annual Christmas Coffee Morning from 10am – 12 noon in Liberton Kirk Centre. Please put the date in your diary and come along and enjoy the fellowship. (see page 4. ED)

All monies raised go to support our two chosen projects this session, Crossreach – Join up the Dots and The Free to Live Trust – Seema's Project, building homes for abandoned children in India.

Count ME In!

The Count ME In! meals at the beginning of October were really special. After a warm welcome, there was time to mingle, with background music from Calum. Then a wonderful meal laid on by Norma and café volunteers

As we go to print, the last Count ME In! meal (lunch on Sunday before the Special Communion) is taking place, and we hope everybody who is there enjoys it too!

Before our closing worship we heard from people who are part of Liberton Kirk- young people who haven't been here long, and people who've been here a good number of years.

We hope that everybody who was at the meals, and everybody who has received the hand-outs since then, will want to be part of the adventure which is Liberton Kirk today, moving into the future. Now is the time to do something about it! Time to think, to bring your thoughts before God, to consider how you can play your part. Everything the church is doing, and could do in the future, needs prayer, and most things need money, and people's time and talents, to make them happen.

Will you say "Count ME In!"

LIBERTON KIRK CELTIC DEVOTIONS

NOVEMBER 19

'How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God'

1 John 3 verse 1

During 2019 we are looking at various Bible characters and their relationship with God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit – as well as dipping into the Psalms each weekend - pausing in prayer at our times of Midday Devotion for others in our church family, our city and our world at this time of the year. In November we journey with JAMES and JOHN – followers of Jesus and letter writers!

We are all encouraged to listen for God's voice and make our response as we journey together in our 'rhythm of devotion' during 2019.

These Devotions are but one way to feed on God's Word in the morning, at midday, in the evening ... to pray with Him continually through the day and even to share with others the treasures or hurdles you discover. The Church website and Facebook page (even on a handy mobile) provide a fuller daily devotional page. However it all follows the pattern below into which the information provided fits, based on the Kirk's origins of the Celtic and Northumbrian traditions which we started as a church family in 2015.

Morning

Reading and Meditation on the content and prayer of response

Midday

Prayer – mostly for others

Evening

Verse(s) from the morning reading
Reflection and Prayer at end of the day

Please use this pattern if you are unable to access the internet -
Or contact Alastair Cameron who can print the daily pattern for you.

To a dead Tommy on November 11th

I can't speak for you.
How did it feel?
What did you see?
Who did you hurt?
I can't speak for you.
You were only 18.
I can't speak for you.
I can never be old enough.

Anger today,
not because it would be unseemly.
Because,
I just don't have the words.
Shame on those politicians today.
I see through your sharp suits and dress.
I see through your designer poppies.
I see your hypocrisy,
and I hear your silence.
Silent for all the wrong reasons.

Kenny Wilson

Thirty Years Ago

It is 30 years ago this month, that the Berlin Wall was demolished, and I thought it a good opportunity to republish (with the Author's permission) an article that first appeared in the December 1989 Kirk Magazine. ED

Berlin

Sunday 14th October was a beautiful, sunny, great to be alive autumn day. Below us stretched a patchwork of trees in glorious colours. We could see between them from our position far above the ground, at the top of the Victory Tower. Between the trees stretched a ten lane highway; but cars could only travel so far, then turn and come back, because the road was in Berlin and it led to the famous Brandenburg Gate. On the observation platform many people stood, some with rosary beads, some just standing silent, eyes closed, lips moving, facing their families, locked in the east, only yards away

We walked to the notorious ten foot high wall, covered in Graffiti, including names and pictures of those killed trying to cross it. Large white letters proclaimed 'It should be easier to see your neighbour than to fly to the moon'. Next to it was 'Don't worry Berlin, Baldrick has a cunning plan'. Platforms had been build so that westerners could see over the wall to the green strip of No Man's Land dotted with Watchtowers. The wall on the eastern side was painted white - easier to see escapees and shoot them. This wasn't a film, or a Len Deighton book. This was real, and people just like us had to live in this atmosphere. We were only 1½ hours by plane from home!

We boarded a bus conspicuously labelled in English "foreigners". Passport details were noted and we were given a number, and told not to loose it. Checkpoint Charlie appeared unexpectedly - places are rarely what you expect - a row of shops and cafes just suddenly stopped, and we were in a floodlit concrete enclosure. No photograph allowed. German guards came on and scrutinised us closely. Glasses had to be removed. A family giggled nervously, and the driver told them to cool it, and not antagonise the guards. Our East German guide arrived and took us on a whistle stop tour of the beautiful buildings on Unter den Linden - no stopping allowed. Then we were decanted at her pride and joy, the gigantic Soviet War Memorial.

It was the Soviet, not East German, influence that struck me most. Cars were Soviet built, Soviet money had built the multi storey flats, Soviet flags flew on buildings, Soviet guards stood at the eternal flame.

The highlight was a visit to the purpose built archaeological museum which housed the temple of Pergammon, and the mind blowing gates of the city of Babylon. Originally build at the time of Nebuchadnezzar, the arches were several stories high in deep blue ceramic bricks with gold bas relief animals adorning them. We also walked down the reconstructed street of Babylon.

The return journey through the checkpoint brought us back to reality again. Total silence and bright searchlights. Guards and dogs searched the bus. While a minibus beside us had all its seats removed. Large cases were opened. A gantry was run along the roof of our bus, and mirrors were put under it. We had to identify ourselves to expressionless guards - They were taking no chances. One could almost touch the feeling of fear in the air.

We could not have dreamed, three weeks later, the scenes on TV. Not one person on our bus would have believed it possible. A peaceful revolution, and families have been re-united. Freedom is not just a word anymore.

Dorothy Morrison.

Your chance to be in a choir

Once a year we invite anybody who would like to sing to join our four-part choir for the Service of Nine Lessons and Carols, which this year is on Wednesday 18th December at 7.30pm.

Rehearsals take place on the six preceding Tuesdays, starting on Tuesday 12th November, from 7.45pm to 9.15pm. The first four rehearsals will be held in the Wilson Hall (upstairs in the Kirk Centre). If you would like to sing please come along on 12th November and join in – nobody has to audition! Being able to read music is, however, a big help, particularly if you want to sing the alto, tenor or bass parts. If you can't come on the 12th; but would like to join the choir the following week please let me know.

The fairtrade range of gifts is sourced from different companies such as Asha and Noah's Ark in India, Manos Amigos in Peru and jute works in Bangladesh. So do come along and support a good cause while making a start on your Christmas shopping. The stall will be set up in the Kirk Centre Foyer so you can shop while relaxing over a cup of coffee.
