NOTICES

The September magazines for delivery to all houses in the parish are available as follows: Streets A-L at the West door and M-Z at the East door. Your help in delivering a bundle or two would be appreciated.

Please note that magazines for 'out of parish' districts are available in the McDonald Room for the usual magazine deliverers to collect.

Many thanks for your help with this outreach to our community.

If you live outside the parish boundary but don't have a magazine delivered, there are spare copies on the Welcome Desks.

From next weekend spare copies will also be available from the Offering House or Kirk Centre entrance.

The magazine is also on the website.

Crosstalk (SEECAT's newsletter) is available to collect as you leave church or from the Offering House or Kirk Centre Entrance, and can be read on www.seecat.org.

Transition Edinburgh South (TES), a small charity which runs Gracemount Community Garden, is seeking new trustees, including a new treasurer. If you are passionate about building local community and environmental sustainability, particularly in and around Gracemount, please get in touch through the contact form on <https://www.transitionedinburghsouth.org.uk/>

Peace Pathway – during the months of July and August spend a peaceful half-hour in the Kirkyard, starting at the Offering House and then following the path round the eight stations, each station with a bible verse, meditation and prayer. The Offering House display is currently about our Growing Young initiative.
