

HAPPY EASTER!

1

On the first Easter morning, the third day from Good Friday, when Jesus was crucified and buried, this is what happened:

“On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them.”

“In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, ‘Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ‘The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again’. Then they remembered his words.”

“Mary (Magdalene) stood outside the tomb crying. . . . she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus.

‘Woman’, he said, ‘why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?’

Thinking he was the gardener, she said, ‘Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.’

Jesus said to her, ‘Mary.’

She turned towards him and cried out in Aramaic, ‘Rabboni!’ (which means Teacher).”

“Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news:
‘I have seen the Lord!’”
